

You Completed the Interview Process. Now What?

After the interview process is complete,
here's what you can expect.

Deliberation and Decision

Your recruiter will debrief with your interview team to get their feedback and assess whether any follow-ups are necessary. We will consider all the input we gathered through your recruitment process and then the team will make a final decision on your candidacy.

It's Offer Time

If you are selected for the role, your recruiter will call you to discuss an offer. We formulate offers to be competitive and take into consideration the role, your experience and expertise, internal peer equity, and market data.

Logistical Odds and Ends

Congrats—you accepted the offer! Next, we will conduct a background check and ask you to complete some onboarding documentation.

Day One

Your background check went through, your pre-hire onboarding is complete, and you're ready for Day One. We'll welcome you with a full-day New Talent Orientation session and cover everything you need to know to get off on the right foot.

Welcome to Dimensional

We're happy to have you and wish you all the best! Make sure to keep in touch with your recruiter and let them know how things go.
